

Parenting courses, pilot projects and prayer groups!

As a new year begins, we here at the NPI marvel at all God has done through local churches to reach and support families in 2018. It really is quite incredible!

We have heard from all over the country about parenting courses being run and connections being made, not least through our amazing regional teams – in Bristol-Bath, Plymouth and Cornwall.

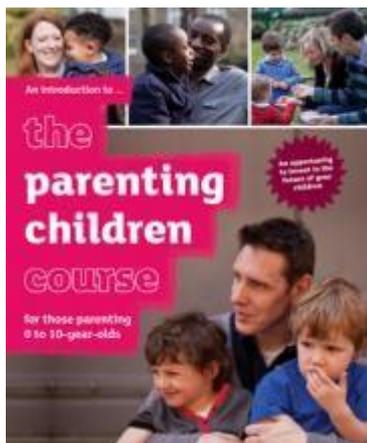

Since our last newsletter, Jane has had the opportunity to exhibit parenting material and speak at a conference in Stourbridge, at the Old Palace in Worcester and meet with the Bishop of Lewes. With more events coming up, including a Family Hubs Fair in London and a Diocese family event in Chester all we can say is watch this space! We're privileged to see first-hand God at work across the country through countless churches supporting family life.

An exciting new branch developing from NPI centrally is our pilot project exploring parenting courses being run by Christian parents in primary schools. If you are part of a school parents prayer group or are a Christian parent who is interested in being part of our pilot project, please get in touch! We are looking for volunteers with a passion for parenting to run a short course in the first part of the summer term. Some suggestions of courses could be:

The 5 week Care for the Family 'Parentalk' course for children

The 5 week Parenting Children Course from Alpha Marriage

Or the 3 session School Kit Course from TLG,

Talking of Kayte... here at NPI HQ we are delighted to introduce our new administrator.

Hi All, my name is Kayte Potter and I have recently taken over from Clair as the new administrator for the NPI.

I have taken a few years out of employment to grow my family, but am delighted to be returning to work now and hope that I am able to do a good job of supporting this great charity and assisting Jane. Do get in touch if you have any questions about the work of The NPI or are interested in joining the pilot project! From Kayte

Finally, we're delighted to announce that the new website is up and running! Please visit and let us know what you think... oh, and don't forget to register any parenting courses you are running!

As ever, we remain grateful for your support and prayers
