

Welcome to... Empowering Parents

As we begin 2021, with continued lockdown and homeschooling for many parents, we are praying for peace across our land, most especially for families.

As ever, we remain committed to seeing family life strengthened and will continue to do what we can through 2021 to this end. We have lots of ideas for online events and content, so please stay tuned!

We are delighted to share with you that we have just launched our second YouTube series! 'Empowering Parents' is for any parent looking for tips and encouragement on a huge range of parenting subjects, from toddler tantrums to technology, and we are really excited to share this series with you.

For our first episode, we were thrilled to interview Ian Soars, the CEO of Fegans, who shared lots of wisdom on 'Front Foot Parenting'. You can watch the video and subscribe to the channel here. Please let us know what you think, as we would really appreciate your feedback.

Thank you for your support, and we look forward to sharing more in the near future!
